

ADR COUNCIL MEETING
FEBRUARY 9, 2005
1:30 P.M.

I. Welcome and Introductions:

Palmer Welcomed everyone and introduced Vanessa Clegg and Stacey Rappleye, who are Susan Bradshaw's students from BYU.

II. Updates:

- a. Senate Joint Resolution – SJR 3 (Resolution Encouraging Mediation) passed on February 2, 2005
HB 4 (Divorce Mediation Program) is on the 3rd reading of the House at the present time.
- b. Darren Rogers, Workforce Services, has expanded their pilot program to all offices and received eight requests for mediation.
- c. Dave Salazar, Human Resource Management, said the most recent request for mediation ended with an agreement. Their department has produced a brochure to sent to the state agencies, which will be put on the website.
- d. Dawn Soper discussed an Arbitration Decision in the Arizona Court of Appeals that might be interesting for the Council members. (See Handout – State of Arizona Arbitration Decision in Court of Appeals).
- e. Susan Bradshaw introduced two of her students from BYU who will be helping us in gathering data regarding the different dispute processes we currently have.

III. Brainstorming of Master Plan for 2005

Susan divided the Council members into working groups to discuss the Master Plan for Dispute Resolution. (Refer to Handout Section of ADR Website)
Additional suggestions regarding this master plan may be sent by email to sbradshaw@utah.gov.

VI. Next Meeting – March 9
